ABOUT CHEF JUSTIN ANTIORIO

Chef Justin, a New Jersey native, became interested in cooking at a very young age, growing up in a household where his father was a chef at many prestigious hotels and his mother was always coming up with new recipes in the family kitchen. After completing high school, with the support of his mother, Chef Justin enrolled at the Institute of Culinary Education in New York where he learned the fundamental skills of cooking and baking. After graduating, he apprenticed at some of New York's top restaurants honing his craft and mastering the fundamentals of the industry.

Chef Justin served first as a line cook at the Highlawn Pavilion in West Orange, New Jersey and then as a line cook at the world renowned 21 Club in New York City. There he rose through the ranks and became one of the youngest sous chefs in 21 Club history. After spending over five years at 21 Club, Chef Justin moved on to learn a new side of the food industry. He joined the team at high end caterer, Sterling Affair, where he took on a sous chef role and became a member of a team that delivered elegant restaurant cuisine at large events and weddings for families, including the famous Rockefellers. In addition to Gordon Ramsey, Chef Justin has been privileged to work with other accomplished chefs such as Susur Lee, Marcus Samuelsson and Gabrielle Hamilton.
